

VOYAGER 'OHANA PTSO OFFICERS SY 2015-2016

Brandy Allen – Co-President

Brandy is a mother of two boys, one of which is currently in 2nd grade at Voyager Public Charter School. She holds a Master's degree in Educational Leadership. Her forte is financial analysis, her passion is education. She enjoys exercising, being outdoors and spending time with family and friends. Her email: allen_brandy@hotmail.com

Leilani Ahina – Co-President

Leilani is a mom of two boys at Voyager, Tyler and Eli. When free time allows, they along with her husband Marc enjoy activities like bodyboarding at Kailua beach, hiking to Manoa Falls, and attending UH football games. (Go Bows!) This is her first term on the PTSO Board as as Co-President, and she is excited to be involved and get to know as many people as possible that are part of the Voyager 'ohana. You can reach her at leiahina@gmail.com.

Kristi Dagdagan – Vice President

Kristi is a Document Control Specialist and Administrative Manager at a California-based consulting company. She and her husband Dion have two children at Voyager: Neve (Makalapua) and Wreyn (Ho'okahua), and a recent graduate (Noelle) at Roosevelt. When she isn't driving the kids to swim meets, voice lessons, swim lessons, or sewing class, Kristi enjoys reading, researching recipes, and singing.

Susie Gardner- Secretary

Susie is the Outdoor Education Coordinator at the Hawaii Children's Discovery Center; she has a long history of informal science education in Hawaii. Her daughter Katy is a first grader at Voyager, her son Max is in college. Susie loves being outside and spending time with her family. She can be reached at: swendlandgardner@icloud.com

Blue Kaanehe – Community Relations Chair

Blue is a practicing attorney in real estate and mortgage banking. She and her husband have two children. Their youngest is in the 5th grade and with a little luck, prompting and timely quashing of ill-advised tomfoolery, he too will be a successful Voyager graduate like his older sister. Blue was the former 2013-2015 PTSO President.

Debbie Goforth - Fundraising Chair

JoAnn Aurio – Special Events Co-Chair

JoAnn is an Export Documentation Customer Service provider for a global maritime shipping line that provides transpacific services between Asia and Hawaii. JoAnn has two children, one in the 4th and one in the 3rd grade. She has been on the Ohana Board for four years and loves being a part of such an awesome VPCS family. JoAnn's email: jlaurio@gmail.com

Tracie Bento - Treasurer

Tracie works at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. She has a son in the third grade attending VPCS. When not spending time with her son, Tracie enjoys shopping and doing crafts.

Krystle Richman – Teacher Representative

Ms. Krystle grew up in Southern California and is a first-generation graduate from Colorado College. She spent the last six years working with students, both as a teacher on Hawai'i Island and O`ahu and as a Special Education Coordinator at a top performing charter school in Denver, CO. While teaching, Ms. Krystle earned her M.Ed from the University of Hawai'i at Manoa. In her spare time, Ms. Krystle embraces sunshine, adventuring, and traveling. She just returned from the Middle East after spending 5 weeks teaching English to children in Jerusalem as part of a summer extension program. Ms. Krystle is stoked to return to Voyager this year!

Honey Mohammadi – Teacher Representative

This is Ms. Mohammadi's third year at Voyager teaching 4th and 5th grade! Her teaching philosophy is parallel to that of Voyager's philosophy about education. She believes that humans are all life-long learners, thus she embraces every moment as a learning experience. Ms. Mohammadi is a vegetarian, and enjoys living a healthy and active life. In her free time, she enjoys being outdoors and traveling. With her passion for teaching and traveling, she integrates her experiences from traveling into her daily teaching practices. In addition to teaching and traveling, photography, visual and performing arts, and yoga are also some of her personal favorite hobbies.
